

WANYANGE GIRLS SECONDARY SCHOOL

S.3 AGRICULTURE ASSIGNMENT

- 1a) Describe the characteristics of a good foundation for a term building.
- b) Explain the problems that may result from a faulty foundation for a building.
- c) Suggest ways that can be used to increase the durability of term building.
2. a) Explain why the farmer should raise vegetable seedlings in a nursery bed before transplanting them to the main garden.
- b) What are the principles that given farmers when designing crops rotation?
- c) What role does crops rotation play in the maintenance of soil fertility?
3. a) Describe the factors that influence labour efficiency
- b) What are the qualities of a good entrepreneur?
4. a) Describe practices that would promote higher crop yields?
- b) Outline the effects of disease on crop production?
5. a) Suggest the factors that influence the choice of pasture species to be planted.
- b) Give the signs that indicate the need to improve pasture species.
6. a) What precautions should a farmer take to ensure successful natural incubation?
- b) Explain the advantages and disadvantages of natural incubation
- c) Describe the artificial method of incubating eggs?
- d) Draw a well labeled diagram of a commercial incubator

GOD BLESS YOU
BY AMUGE FLORENCE.