

Complete the following sentences, using going to wherever possible and will or shall in other cases:

- 1 It is very cloudy and I'm sure it . . . rain.
- 2 He . . . leave for England on Thursday.
- 3 I . . . stay in this town for a month.
- 4 This train . . . take you to Lagos.
- 5 He . . . give you change if you ask him.
- 6 I . . . read a book tonight.
- 7 He . . . clean his bicycle this evening.
- 8 The sun . . . rise at half past five tomorrow morning.
- 9 The headmaster . . . punish that boy if he is late again.
- 10 When . . . you telephone your father?
- 11 Tomorrow . . . be the last day of the month.
- 12 His wife . . . have a baby next month.
- 13 I don't know if you . . . be chosen for the play.
- 14 Those trees . . . be cut down next week.
- 15 The gardener . . . water the lawn if we tell him to.
- 16 We . . . have more students in this school next term.
- 17 Our dog . . . bark if someone tries to break into the house.
- 18 The train . . . arrive in ten minutes' time.
- 19 The President . . . make an important speech tonight.
- 20 If you spend a few months in Italy, you . . . become quite fluent in Italian.